LEESBURG INDEPENDENCE DAY PARADE

By: Chrissy Kinman

The morning rally at Frances Hazel Reid Elementary went off without a hitch. About 40 cars arrived between 8:15- 8:25. The organizers had the cars line up red, white/silver, and blue first. Could have used a few more blues but reds were very popular! Then the rest of the cars filed in behind and cruised over to Ida Lee Park, the main parade staging area.

It was hot, humid and dusty but spirits were high as everyone decorated their cars. Flags and banners were the most popular car decorations and many of the drivers were seen with top hats, cowboy hats, festive headbands and even star spangled sunglasses. Several of the drivers played music to get everyone into a patriotic groove.

It was a sight to be seen as the vettes all cruised down King Street. The crowds often shouted "rev it up" and the drivers were happy to oblige! It was a great morning for both parade participants and observers.

Most of the drivers were from ODCC and there were at least 5 from NVCC. On a side note, there were no older models represented. Only one C4 and maybe a half dozen C5s, the rest were C6s and C7s. It would be great to see some older vettes next year! Hint Hint!

Trivia By Jeff Klain June 27, 2017 GBM

Hard question for experts: "'Jeff Corvette is one of the greatest American racecars alive today. Donning the stars and stripes of his country's flag, the #24 Corvette C6.R has proven his ability to succeed on the big ovals and the road courses of the Grand Touring Sports circuits. Having moved from his hometown of Vallejo, California to Indiana to be closer to the racing world, Corvette's ability to accelerate at such a young age has turned hoods wherever he competes. His championships and number of victories are unmatched, making him a respected competitor-and legitimate threat-at the World Grand Prix.'" What universe does this Corvette belong to?

Disney Cars II

Beginner question: Name a Corvette system that uses brake fluid other than the brakes?

Clutch

Everyone: What color mirrors are installed on the C7R race car?

Red

Surprise trivia challenge from Rick Poage, wherein he offered to re-gift one of his past prizes (poster from "12 Hours at Sebring"), for the correct answer to a trivia question, as follows:

Question: What was the name of the Skunk Works car that was originally designed as a Camaro and ended up as a 1968 Corvette?

Answer: The Banshee

This challenge went unanswered, and Rick posed another question:

Question: What was the nickname of the famous NCCA driver, Dr. Dick Thompson?

Answer: The Flying Dentist.

This question also went unanswered, and Rick posed a final question:

Question: There were five Grand Sport Corvettes made for racing. How were their cars identified? Answer: There were 3 hash marks on each car, fashioned from duct tape.

This question was answered by Omar G., who was awarded the poster.

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER—JULY 2017

Happy Summer, NVCC! For only one hundred or so members of the NVCC, we are an active bunch. During these peak months, we have at least two of our own club events going on, filling in other weekends with our neighboring clubs' events, like Capt. Billy's Crab House Cruise put on by Aquia Creek CC, the August Cruise-In by Old Dominion CC which usually draws in excess of 400 Corvettes, and the ever-famous Corvettes on the Boardwalk in Ocean City, MD by Freestate CC. I asked some of the longer-term members at this month's council meeting if they thought we offered too many things (you know, quantity over quality) and the resounding answer was NO. Great.

We're breaking the mold, as I promised earlier this year, by holding the August GBM on Saturday, the 19th, after filling up on delicious brunch at the Amphora (a reliable restaurant for those of us who have lived in NOVA most of our lives). I know several of you have already responded that you'll be gone, but for the rest, please push your usual Saturday morning to do list aside for 1.5 hours and come out to this meeting (bring your significant others, too)! It doesn't always have to be the Amphora, as I foresee, if successful and something you all want, the breakfast meeting could become a launchpad for a short cruise.

Lastly, I admire and appreciate the enthusiasm of several of our newest members to the club, through either email responses, joining us on nearly every event the club holds, or helping out at the car show/TDS. I'd like to recognize Tom Faust, Paul Fineberg, Tom and Chrissy Kinman, the Van Slotens, Reece Burgoyne, and recently the Kuhns. The club appreciates members like you.

HOW TO WAVE

You are most likely a Corvette Owner if

.... You yell "SAVE THE WAVE" to other Vette drivers when they don't wave back.

CORVETTE WAVE RULES

by Dan Woomer (October 23, 2003)

Lost Caravan Corvette Club

The Corvette Wave is an integral part of the mystique and culture of the Corvette owner experience. Corvette owners who wave at fellow Corvette owners when they pass on the road, show a mark of recognition that you are among the elite group of intelligent people who are driving America's True Sports Car. And as a member of this elite group, you should be recognized for your poise and intelligence. So for those who don't know the five simple Corvette Wave rules, here they are:

- 1. There is no excuse for not waving at your fellow Corvette owner. Although most Corvette owners have the class and understanding to accept when their wave is not returned, not waving is a serious breach of proper Corvette etiquette.
- 2. Whoever sees the other Corvette first, starts the wave. There isn't any rule about who waves first. This is simple; if you see another Corvette, wave!
- 3. Rules 1 and 2 apply to both sexes. As far as who starts the wave, it doesn't make a difference if you are a man or women. Rules 1 and 2 apply.
- 4. Any type of wave is okay. Whether you shoot a big wave up through your open Vette top, out the window, or a quick salute with your hand on the steering wheel, any wave that can be seen by the other Corvette driver is okay. However, this does not include any style of jester that can be interpreted as obscene or insulting. Remember, Corvette owners are a class act; while someone might have been rude or stupid to you, try not to return the favor. (This is a tough rule not to break with all the stupid drivers who manage to get a driver's license.)
- 5. A late wave is better than no wave. If you suddenly realize that a Corvette driver is passing and waving at you, get a wave off as soon as possible. The other Corvette driver may see your wave in their rear view mirror and realize that you were just a little late in getting your wave going. Although missing the timing of your wave is a "goof," getting off a wave that the other Corvette driver has a chance to see can acceptably cover this slip-up.

So you can see the underlying concept here is simple: Wave at your fellow Corvette owners, whoever they are, whenever you see them. This will show you are a person who understands the full measure and etiquette that comes with your proud ownership of a Corvette.

Ed. Note—6. Flashing your headlights for those driving C6 and C7 Corvettes, while laudable, is not the equivalent of a wave. If your windows are up, lean forward and wave through the windshield.

NVCC GENERAL BUSINESS MEETING MINUTES

JUNE 27, 2017—VICKI ALLEN-SCOTT, SECRETARY

Officers present:

Kris McCandless, President
John Scott, Vice President
Vicki Allen-Scott, Secretary

John Stark, Treasurer
Jerry Lelansky, OAL

The meeting was called to order at 7:32PM by President Kris McCandless, at Page Chevrolet, 6500 Little River Turnpike, Alexandria, VA 22312.

Two new members were present: Paul Rice ('67 vette), and Theda Ellis ('78 vette) – who found NVCC via Google. Three past NVCC presidents were also present: John Palmgren, Rick Poage, and Dick Hammaker.

The GBM minutes from May 2017 were unanimously approved.

The first order of business was an announcement by Kris about a conversation with Vince Brown/Page Chevy. Vince asked Kris to tell the membership that Page would like to have more members utilize their service program, and Page is increasing the service discount for NVCC members, from 13% to 20%, with a $200 cap. Page is also asking for first right of refusal on sale/installation of OEM or after-market parts, including tires – and will match the price or do better on competitors' offers. Omar Gordon asked if the discount applies to online tire prices - and it does. In addition, Vince told Kris that Page will give a 25% discount on DIY parts purchases.

It was noted that Page now has two fully certified (GM and Corvette) service techs: John Magee, who is their principal tech; and James Locke. Steve Campbell and Glenda are their service writers.

Kris also announced that Page has given the Club several $25 gift certificates for services, which will be raffled at the upcoming NVCC picnic.

Club Donation – Kris thanked Reece Burgoyne (who was absent) for his able assistance during the car show, as well as his donation of a 4-in-1 inkjet printer, which will come in handy for Club events, such as teen driving (to copy licenses and documentation).

Car Show Recap – Kris also thanked Jim Garner and Dave Dubois for managing an outstanding car show. Paul Fineberg, Bo Marlin, and Jim Dobish all won trophies at the show! The event was a success – and the Club will donate to MS as soon as John Stark reconciles the income and expenses. Kris also noted that we would like to attract more vendors at next year's show.

Ice Cream Cruise – Kris asked Mae Fromm for a recap of this event, which she led on June 24th. Twenty corvettes were led through to ice cream venues in three states (VA/MD/WV) and a good time was had by all!

Social Media – Mae also reported that she is working on uploading photos from the car show to Flickr and that the URL for the NVCC Flickr page is published in the newsletter.

Winery Cruises – Shawn Waddell wasn't present, however, Kris pointed out that the Barrel Oak Winery cruise was successful as always – and Shawn will also lead a cruise to DuCard Vineyards, on July 8th.

Picnic Update – The annual NVCC Picnic will take place on Sunday, July 16th at Rich and Cheryl Anderson's farm, in West Virginia. Kris will lead a cruise to the property – driver's meeting will be at 9:30am and the cruise will begin at 10:00am.

Kris asked for 4 volunteers for setup, 2 volunteers for grilling meats, and at least 2 volunteers to help with cleanup. The following members volunteered: Setup – Jerry & Irene Lelansky; Jim & Jo Garner. Grilling – John Palmgren, Paul Fineberg, and Mike Gilliland. Cleanup – Al Boone, who will be joined by several other members – it's Club tradition that we will always leave the property in good shape. Kris also asked for volunteers to bring ice, and Rick Poage suggested that coolers can be loaded with ice when the cruise stops at Sheetz gas station (on the way to the picnic).

Kris asked everyone to sign up for the picnic via the motorsportsreg.com (MSR) link; and although there's no charge for the picnic, registration provides a headcount for the Andersons to better plan food, drinks, and various supplies. Mae also pointed out that the MSR link also has various sign-up categories for volunteers.

Penn Alps Cruise – Tom Faust will lead this event on July 29th, to Grantsville, MD – which is near the PA border. It is a good restaurant and is situated in a village with artisan exhibits and demonstrations.

Breakfast GBM – Kris announced that the Amphora Restaurant in Vienna, VA will be the venue for our first Saturday morning GBM at 9:30am, on August 19th. The meeting will include a breakfast buffet that will cost $20 per person, and Kris encouraged members to bring their significant others!

Corvettes at Carlisle – Mike Gilliland reminded us that he will lead an NVCC cruise to Carlisle, PA on August 26th.

Wounded Warrior Car Show – Dave Dubois (not present) is putting together this event, which is scheduled on September 23rd at Walter Reed.

~ BREAK ~

General announcements and discussion about upcoming events:

John Palmgren announced that the Club has a $100 online store credit voucher from Carparts.com/ Auto Parts Warehouse/JC Whitney, to be raffled off at the NVCC picnic.

Bob Devery announced that if there's an interest, he'll plan a Club visit to the TRACON (high altitude traffic area) radar facility at Dulles. He added that it must be before he retires, on October 14th.

The 50/50 jackpot was $42 (won by Scott Hurley)

The last topic of the evening resulted from a question by our new member, Theda E., who asked for a referral to troubleshoot the transmission on her C3 Corvette. Several service companies were suggested, including Coopers Corvettes, Page Chevrolet, and Tony's Corvettes.

Adjourned at 8:47PM

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS:

Tom McPherson—2014 Blade Silver Stingray Coupe
Kevin and Susan Van Sloten—2014 Lime Rock Green Z51 Coupe

PLAQUE DESIGN CONTEST

DAVE DuBois

Announcing a contest for NVCC members to develop an "appreciation" plaque that we would give to Page Chevrolet for them to display in their sales area.

Here is your chance to put your talents to good use. You are free to work with other members or even non-members, to design your plaque. Shown is a quick example to give you some ideas. Size shown is 11 x 8.5 but you can go a little larger.

The winning design will be sent out to get built.

The winning person or team will be able to add their names to the plaque and be the "presenters" to Page.

If there are multiple entries, the entries will be voted on by the general membership at a GBM. If not present, you can send your vote into Marsha Batchellor.

Entries are due prior to the July 2017 GBM to give you time to take pictures at our June 4th Page Car Show.

The winner(s) will receive a gift card from Dogfish Head Brewery for $25.

If you need PowerPoint or composition help for your plaque, please see David DuBois.

The winning design will be sent out to get built, and shown is an example.

NVCC 9TH ANNUAL CRUISE AND PICNIC AT THE ANDERSON FARM

The weather forecast earlier in the week looked like a repeat of last year's searing heat, but for the 18 Corvette owners and those riding shotgun, it turned out to be a very pleasant, breezy, bright and sunny day for the nearly two hour cruise from Dulles Town Center out to The Anderson's Farm and the 9th Annual NVCC Picnic.

I heard from mid-pack that Corvette and Mustang owners stopped on Rt. 7 to save a golden retriever crossing three lanes of traffic en route to our usual Sheetz stop in Charles Town. We emptied the Sheetz of their remaining ice, impressed those pumping gas with our shiny steeds and made our way to another yummy barbecue extravaganza, replete with Richard's homemade pies (from fruits from his own garden) and this year also featured homemade red cabbage sauerkraut by Cheryl Anderson and Company. Our adept set up crew of Jim and Jo Garner, Irene and Jerry Lelansky, and Dick Hamaker under the direction of our host and Past President, Rich Anderson, had the tables and chairs all ready for us, while Master Grillers Mike Gilliland, John Palmgren and Jerry Lelansky prepared all of the bratwurst, chicken, burgers and dogs as the staple for every plate for the 50 or so attendees at this year's picnic. Paul, his young cousin, and Jim Dobish and Jane were got tours of the farm and of Rich's Corvette collection: he has one of every generation except the C7, and nearly all of them are some shade of blue. On behalf of the NVCC Council and all those in attendance, a big THANK YOU to Rich and Cheryl and their friends who put on another successful and delicious picnic.

It was time to Wine Wine Wine as NVCC went to DuCard Vineyards. We left Keene Mill Shopping Center and drove down some awesome roads on our way to Etlan. We arrived right in the middle of the Shenandoah Mountains. NVCC got extra special hospitality by the owner Scott Eliff. Scott actually poured us our wine as part of our tasting, and took us on an extra special tour of the vineyard. He also explained how wine is made and various other aspects of being a vineyard owner. As usual everyone had an exceptional time and enjoyed the wine and comradery. Shawn Waddell

NEWS FROM BOB DEVERY—THE TRAVEL GUY

GreetingsUnder 100 days till cruise update to those of us going to Barcelona for the Mediterranean 7 night break on Oct. 15 with pre-cruise night in BCN on Oct. 14. We have a wonderful trip set with birthday parties for four members. Our excursions give us plenty of cool stuff to do plus the entertainment on the ship. PLUS the cruise fare that we got for mini suites is a balcony rate with the all you can drink and specialty dining packages AND FREE gratuities on those items as a bonus.

WINTER GETAWAY??? Join the Lelanskys and Deverys on the new Carnival VISTA - their newest and largest ship with excellent reviews. I'm excited with the briefing I got and the comments on the ship. We head out 1/13/18 out of Miami for an EIGHT NIGHT SOUTHERN CARIBBEAN run with a newly opened port call in the Dominican Republic as well as toes in the water in Grand Turk, Aruba and Curacao. The temps are in the 80's and are a wonderful reminder that we are NOT in Virginia with possible snow, etc.! This cruise is not set as an NVCC cruise as other friends are booked too, but it will trigger donations to the club for members who sail with us. So if you "love" winter as I do, plan to leave a part of it behind. <https://www.cruiseshipcenters.com/Cruise/en-US/BobDevery/Itinerary?item=938480>

Last ... I appreciate the comments that a number of members made regarding a "new venture". So I've got a NINE night cruise out of Copenhagen on 9/14/18 that goes to various Baltic capitals and more. There is an overnight in St. Petersburg to give plenty of time to enjoy the palaces and architecture and Helsinki, Berlin, Stockholm and more on the itinerary in the link below. Sailing on NCL BREAKAWAY ... one of the newest NCL ships with group prices AND amenities like the all you can drink package and specialty dining INCLUDED along with gratuities on those items! <https://www.cruiseshipcenters.com/Cruise/en-US/BobDevery/Itinerary?item=984189>

Once again, if you have other ideas - bucket list type stuff - let me know. For 2018 and winter 2019 ideas: looking at Venice cruise departures, Alaska, river cruise in Europe, all-inclusive in the Bahamas or Caribbean AND even 5-6 night cruises that include a car shopping trip to Cuba! Going to attempt to get a surprise for Caribbean 2019 if the group is large enough!

Send a note if interested in one of our journeys or if you have an idea to consider. YOUR feedback may become our next trip!

Penn Alps Cruise
Saturday July 29, 2017

Please join us for a wonderful cruise to Penn Alps Restaurant and Crafts shop in Western Maryland! Many of the entrees on the menu are reflective of delicious home-style food typical of Amish and Mennonite cuisine. Options include a daily soup and salad bar, desert bar, weekend buffets (all you can eat) enhanced by the warmth of an original log inn, and items that can be ordered from the menu. Information: 125 Casselman Rd., Grantsville, MD 21536 (301-895-5985)

Either before or after the meal, feel free to peruse the Penn Alps Craft Shop. More than 2500 craftsmen of the Tri-State area have marketed their work at the Craft Shop. Many rely on Penn Alps to support their income thus fulfilling the motto of Dr. Alta Schrock “To help people help themselves”. Additionally, there are a variety of jellies, sauces, salsas, candies etc. available for purchase.

Before departing, consider a quick visit to the Spruce Forest Artisan Village adjacent to Penn Alps Restaurant. Historic cabins house craftsmen perfecting their crafts including but not limited to weaving, pottery, woodturning, metal sculpture, bird carving, and herbal soap making.

So, "if the Good Lord is willing and the creeks don't rise", we are going to have a gathering of Hazzard Nation that we hope will be unforgettable for you and your family. "Cooter's Last Stand" will take place on Saturday, July 29th and Sunday, July 30th at Cooter's in the Valley, our new store near Luray, Virginia in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley. Our new location is surrounded by an enormous field, big enough to handle tens of thousands of festival fans. The show will be a celebration of "The Dukes of Hazzard" and of Southern culture, and promises to be the last great gathering of our cast in one place at one time (Ben Jones) www.cootersplace.com.
